Appendix No. 11: Use of databases of Allegro.pl and available in Allegro

1. As part of Allegro, Allegro.pl provides Users with third-party databases to an extent that enables them to complete some or all of the elements of the Offer content, including the parameters, images and descriptions of Item, both through the listing form and through API.
2. The User can use the databases made available to Users of Allegro.pl only by completing – using Allegro functionalities – some or all of the elements of the Listing content, including the parameters, images and descriptions of Item, and by displaying Listings containing elements derived from such databases on Allegro.
3. Any use of the databases provided by Allegro.pl in Allegro in a manner exceeding the authority granted under Section 2 hereof shall be prohibited.
4. With regard to the specific databases, the following restrictions shall apply:
 - 4.1. “Tec Doc” database, the rights to which are held by TecAlliance GmbH with its registered office in Ismaning:

“The data and information indicated as part of self-filling of Listings, in particular the databases from which such data or information is derived, may not be copied or reproduced in any manner whatsoever. Copying, reproducing or using such information or data in any manner whatsoever, including their provision to third parties without the consent of TecAlliance GmbH with its registered office in Ismaning, Germany, shall not be allowed. Any violation of the above restriction shall constitute a breach of the rights of TecAlliance GmbH with its registered office in Ismaning, Germany, and shall form the basis for pursuing claims against the entity committing such unlawful copying or reproduction”.
5. The content gathered in Allegro, in particular as part of the Listings, constitute databases subject to legal protection, i.a. with regard to their use by third parties. Any use of such databases by downloading or re-using the data shall require prior consent of the authorised entity. The content of the databases shall be subject to independent control under the provisions of law. In the event of unauthorised use of legally protected databases or their content, Allegro.pl or other authorised entities will be entitled to pursue claims against the infringing entities on account of their rights to the databases or their content, in particular claims for damages or cease and desist claims. Any use of legally protected databases without authorisation may be subject to penal liability.
